ECO-500 AW carpet extractor

November 11, 2011 — Stay up to date on the industry's newest products and services from these ISSA members.

This Extractor Is Golden

CFR's new ECO-500 AW mid-sized carpet extractor has earned the Carpet and Rug Institute's Gold Seal of Approval. This extractor recycles its water/cleaning solution so that it can be reused up to seven times before emptying. For more information, visit www.cfrcorp.com.

Can't Cut This

Kimberly-Clark Professional's Jackson Safety G60 cut-resistant gloves provide superior cut resistance to protect workers against hand lacerations. Additionally, the gloves' dark coating hides dirt for longer wear. For more information, visit www.kcprofessional.com.

A Zippy Way to Clean

The ZipClean Auto System from Diversey is the first automated air conveyor cleaning system for food and beverage plant cleaning applications. It reduces bottle jams by 66 percent, decreasing the need for air conveyor line lubrication and reducing the total cost of air conveyor operation by 80 percent. For more information, visit www.diversey.com.

Bet You'll Like This Scrubber

Betco Corp. introduces the GeneSys 15 Automatic Scrubber, designed for small area cleaning. It works on a variety of surfaces and features an optional tool kit to convert the machine to a wet vac, carpet/upholstery extractor, and power sprayer. For more information, visit www.betco.com.

Smells Like a Classic

Claire Manufacturing Co.'s recently released American Classics line of air fresheners features six popular retail fragrances without the retail price. This line offers six metered, handheld products for controlled sprays without a dispenser and six metered refills for use in wall-mounted dispensers. For more information, visit www.clairemfg.com.
